THE STRAIGHT LINE IS STRONGLY EMPHASIZED.

Attractive is this costume in dirt colored broadcloth trimmed with black velvet and braid. The front panel gives a princess effect that is very modish.

The princess effect, especially at the front with a rather well defined waistline, is undeniably one of the most successful of the latest type of one-piece frock.

The dress shown here is made of dirt gray broadcloth trimmed with black velvet and braid that combines in rich effect shades of dull green and silver. There is a band of velvet, braid stitched on either side, about the skirt, this idea finding repetition in the belt. The collar and cuffs of plain velvet are simply trimmed with soutache. In medium size the model requires 5 yards 44-inch material, with 1 yard of velvet.

MANY UNITED STATES SOLDIERS MEET
DEATH IN CLASHES ON MEXICAN BORDER

In the accompanying illustration are shown United States cavalrymen and United States artillerymen in the border cities of Laredo and Brownsville, Tex. In clashes with Mexican bandits several United States soldiers have been killed, not before, however, several hundred of the roving border desperadoes had been shot to death or made prisoners. These two Texas cities have been in what might be called a siege for many days.

live without me. He pleads for me to marry him. So far, I have refused him; or to go with him. I know I cannot love him, but did like to go with him. Should one go about with a boy she cannot love? I have passed my 16th birthday and am fair.

OUGHT THEY TO WED?

Dear Miss Libby:—

I am a girl of Irish nationality, educated, going with a young man of 20 the past three months. He clerks in a public place. I hear he flirts with all girls that come in. We are not engaged. He says he loves me. Had I better ask him to stop flirting? I do not flirt. The young man is of Swedish parentage. Girls tease me in regard to going with him. Ought I to wed him?

M. D.

It is only important that there is no flirtation. It may be only hearsay of him. He possesses good habits and both loving and letting me stay at home. We quit a few times from jealousy. Am afraid he is devoted to some other girl besides me. We were engaged, and day after day when we were to wed on several occasions. He always put it off. He presented me with a ring. I would be glad to know if he intends to marry me?

PUTTING THE WEDDING OFF

Dear Miss Libby:—

I am your reader, a girl of 18, kept company with a young man of 20 for a year. He loves me he says. I know my regard is fond for him whenever I see him. I will appreciate your advice as to whether I am to be his wife or not? He has a habit of going to a good many places and letting me stay at home. We quit a few times from jealousy. Am afraid he is devoted to some other girl besides me. We were engaged, and day after day when we were to wed on several occasions. He always put it off. He presented me with a ring. I would be glad to know if he intends to marry me?

M. H.

Unless for the best and most urgent of reasons it is not a favorable indication to put off the wedding, as in your instance, several times. A bride-to-be would hardly know what to expect. Be sure and have this important understanding with him when you continue your engagement that it is not to be broken off again.

LITTLE BENNY'S
NOTEBOOK

By Lee Page

Skinny Martin was away yesterday, but my fellow was awl getting awl his trunk steps just the same as if he was there, and a big brown dawg came down the street looking as if it wasn't going anywhere spehili and a little white dawg ran out at it barking like anything and the big brown dawg turned around and ran back up the street as if it was half scared to death, which it properly was.

G. wat do you no about that, it wood take moar than a little white dawg to scare me, if I was a big brown dawg, sed Puds Simkins.

It takes a lot to scare me, sed Sam Krawas, wif I was walking alawing a dark alley and a robbin jumped out at me I bet I woodnt be scared, I'd jest quick trip him up and run and get a cop.

Im hard to scare, to, sed my cuzin Artie, I bet if I was in the jungle and 3 lions jumped at me at wunts I woodnt care as lawing as I had my gun wif me.

Wat if 4 lions did, sed Puds Simkins, sissy cuzin Persey.

4 lions eatthir, sed my cuzin, Artie.

I bet I woodnt be scared even if I herd a begeruler undir my bed, I sed, I bet I'd jest lay stity and pretend to be asleep and as soon as he had his back turned I'd chuck in and get pop and the both of us wood take his pistol away from him and give him to a policeman.

I woodnt be scared of a runaway horse and waggin. I'd run rite out in the middle of the street, and wave my arms and stop it, sed Persey.

Yes you wood, we awl sed.

Yes I wood, to, sed Persey.

Wich jest then the door opened my back of us. Skinny y Martin farthir was standing there, beeing even skinnier than was Skinny 's, with a fearsome dispershin, and he said, Well, of awl the confowndid nerve, beet it, the hole pack of you, or Ill skin you alive.

Cheese it, we awl yelled and ran like anything in about 10 diffrent directions. Persey, that no martin how brave you think you are, thats ony wat you think.

Don't Be a Wisher.

For several weeks the Nothnagle force has been busy arranging the new fall stock that has been arriving daily from America's foremost factories. All available space in the big store is filled to overflowing with the beautiful and the delightful that will find permanent homes in Bridgeport family circles. Walking through the store now seems like walking through an exhibit of the latest output of American manufacturers. Even if you do not want to buy anything now, it would be a splendid idea for you to go in and look around. It is part of a woman's duty to familiarize herself with modern household equipment and she ought to know about these new things.

Many of you are undoubtedly planning right now some addition or replacement this fall and many others are wishing they too could have something new. To these could be said, "Don't be a wisher, be a planner," since for what better purpose can money be spent than to add the artistic charm of good furniture and furnishings to the home? Think it over and visit the Nothnagle store at 1145 Main street.—Adv.

Constipation is Caused by sedentary life, careless eating, lack of sufficient exercise, and by the use of harmful laxatives and cathartics which aggravate the very condition they are supposed to cure.

Constipation is Cured

by a return to regular habits of eating and exercise, by breaking off the laxative habit, and by the use of Nujol as an internal lubricant.

Nujol

A PURE WHITE MINERAL OIL

Is odorless and tasteless, absolutely neutral, and is not digested or absorbed into the system. It acts merely as a mechanical lubricant.

Nujol is not a drug. Its use will not give quick, temporary relief. But Nujol is a genuine remedy in that it relieves constipation in the most natural way by lubricating the lining of the intestines, softening the intestinal contents, and thus promoting healthy and normal bowel activity.

The mineral oil treatment for constipation, first advocated by Sir William Arbuthnot Lane, the distinguished English surgeon, is now being successfully prescribed by doctors all over the world.

Write for "The Rational Treatment of Constipation," an informative treatise on constipation. If you cannot get Nujol from your druggist, we will send you a pint bottle prepaid to any point in the United States on receipt of 75c—money order or stamps.

COMING HOME WITH HER FROM PARK

Dear Miss Libby:—

I am your constant reader; ask what I had better do. Am a girl of 18, keep company with a young man a year my senior. He treated me fine before Christmas and after. Does not come regularly. Visits in week, but never on Sundays. I love him, yet why does he treat me so? If he goes to the park or picture show he won't ask me to go. If I am there, he asks to take me home. If I am with any one else he doesn't like it. I feel free to go with others while just keeping company and he don't come. Is this right? My folks like him he is gentlemanly. I feel as if I have no friends who would not turn from me.

He may be a young man who needs outdoor air and recreation and enjoys your company home from park or snow better than indoors. Do not be displeased at this. You have a right to go with others if not engaged. Sometimes this turns a man's interest and breaks off friendship.

WAIT PROSPERITY—
LOVE AND WED

Dear Miss Libby:—

I am a girl of 18, going with a young man of 21. He is a farmer and, unfortunately, is quite poor. He wants to marry me. I think it best to wait till he gets a good start. Don't you think this best? Please help me to decide.

N. H.

You are wise in waiting for him to get a start. This will aid him to do better and wed happily.

FOOLISH TO GO WITH ONE YOU CANNOT LOVE

Dear Miss Libby:—

I am troubled, ask your aid, please. I go with a young man of 21. He told me many times he loves me; cannot
